PAGING DR. SEUSS: LESSONS FROM WHOVILLE HOSPITAL FOR HEALTHCARE PROFESSIONALS

ETHICAL ISSUES RESULTING FROM COMMUNICATION PROBLEMS

Presented by: Jason Lesandrini, Ethicist; Grady Memorial Hospital

In the healthcare profession, we are constantly communicating with our patients and other providers about critical information. How often does the message we are trying to convey really get across to our patients? Do they really understand what we are saying? When a patient is in a crisis, we need to make sure they are fully comprehending our instructions. In this unique and interactive presentation, esteemed presenter Jason Lesandrini will show us how we can use Dr. Seuss and his books to learn about the mishaps that happen during patient/provider communication – that ultimately lead to ethical problems. Dr. Seuss is not only a children's author – his unique style of communication can be used to help us become better communicators and avoid ethical conflicts that may arise due to miscommunications.

Agenda

4:45 – 5:30 pm Registration and Complimentary Dinner

5:30 – 7:45 pm CEU Presentation

By attending our workshop, you will be able to:

1. Name 2 mishaps that can happen during patient/provider communication.
2. Identify 2 ethical issues that can arise during patient/provider communication.

Complimentary Dinner & CEU Hosted by:
